JEFFERSON LOYALTY
by Torrence and Ruth Carlson

Jefferson High, High on a hill,
Sing we now thy praise.
Colors blue and white, lead us in the right,
Our voices in tribute we raise.

When graduation comes we'll go our separate ways,
But never will we lose the memory of these days.
Jefferson High, framed by the sky,
Sing we thy song of praise.

Woodrow Wilson Junior High School

Theodore Roosevelt Junior High School
Principal's Message

This book, the 1957-1958 issue of The Statesman, is the first yearbook of the Jefferson Senior High School. The school was named after Thomas Jefferson, who was known as a statesman, lawyer, diplomat, administrator, planter and philosopher. Jefferson, who was also known as the Father of American Democracy, was so named for his work as the draftsman of the Declaration of Independence.

All who enter the halls of Jefferson High should always be mindful of the leadership of this early American who made a great contribution to our American Heritage.

Sincerely,

W. L. Paxson

She is also fond of dancing and likes to have fun. Emersy would appreciate "news from America" through your letters. Her address is: Agias Triados 13, Nea Philidelphia, Athens, Greece.

Auli Martinsen, from Helsinki, Finland, is showing Janet White, her American sister, exactly where her home town is. Auli likes to listen to music played by Roger Williams on the piano. Shirley Havlik, a North Jefferson Senior, is shown with her souvenirs from Tunsberg, Norway, where she stayed last summer.

Football

The split schools made it rather difficult for the two teams to practice together as one. But, we still had the J-Hawk spirit which we hope will still back the team next year. Good luck in the 1958 football season.

Basketball

The First Jefferson High Basketball team was winless, but no one can say that the team or the coach didn’t try. The boys practiced faithfully every night under the able coaching of Mr. Earl Klinzman, our trouble centered mostly in the lack of height the team needed.

Coronation Festivities

Due to the division of schools, Jefferson conducted a double ceremony in crowning Queens Karen Townsend and Janet Dvorak to reign during Coronation Weekend, of October 31 to November 2. Jefferson's first Coronation consisted of a pep rally, the crowning of the queens, the Coronation football game, and a Coronation Ball.
On November 21 and 22, Thespians, under the direction of Mr. Lauterbach, presented the play "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder.

On March 10, members of the Jefferson dramatic and vocal departments organized to make plans for our spring production of "Carousel."
