Jefferson High, high on a hill....
Sing we now thy praise...
Colors blue and white
Lead us in the right...
Our voices in tribute we raise...
When graduation comes
We'll go our separate ways...
But never will we lose
The memory of these days...
Jefferson High, framed by the sky...
Sing we thy song of praise.
This year's homecoming festivities were a good beginning for a wonderful year at Jefferson High. A spirited bonfire Thursday night started out the weekend, and enthusiasm was heightened by the 32-13 victory over West Davenport Friday night. The dance was held Saturday night in the Jeff dining room with the theme, "Some Enchanted Evening." Music was furnished by the Transcription Dance Band, and this year's dance was the most successful dance in Jefferson's history. Homecoming 1962 was a time that will be remembered by everyone at Jefferson.

We owe a part of our successes and achievements to our school administration. It is the organization of our school; it has the responsibility of supervision and teaching. We are able to learn only through the efforts and co-operation of the administration.
PRINCIPAL

The 1963 edition of the Jefferson Senior High School yearbook "The Statesman" is an interesting and accurate account of the 1962-63 school activities.

There is concrete evidence that Jefferson has reached a high stature in many respects among the larger high schools in Iowa, academically, in athletics, musical events, dramatics and in its publications.

The successes are due to the conscientious efforts, loyalty and hard work of the students and faculty. Continued high level of achievements will be expected from future classes as they enter the halls of Jefferson High.

Physical Education
Jefferson's underclassmen have the responsibility of upholding the stature and spirit at Jefferson. The increasingly large number of underclassmen has contributed to the many advancements of our school, and they will continue to do so in the future. Their contributions to academic achievements, athletics, and many other extra-curricular activities have helped to make Jefferson one of the outstanding schools of Iowa.

The best part of being a senior is looking back. Some seniors remember trips, such as Choir, Band, or Heritage trips; some remember the plays and musicals; some remember rough courses, long hours of homework, and cramming for exams; some remember the many successes in athletic events. Each senior has his own special memories. Whether he continues his education or enters a career or employment, the senior will take his experiences with him.

This year Jefferson is fortunate in having an exchange teacher, Mr. Guenter Niemz, of Frankfort, Germany. Mr. Niemz is teaching English and German in place of Mr. Charles Silliman, Jefferson instructor, who is taking Mr. Niemz's place in Germany.

"Cedar Rapids is a very nice city to be in and a very nice place to live. There are no cities in Germany like Cedar Rapids."

Mr. Niemz feels that on the whole, the Jefferson students are rather well mannered.

"I was very much surprised to find you have such excellent equipment here. The gymnasiums in Frankfort do have swimming pools, but we have no machine shops or business education departments. In Germany you must go to a vocational school for this training."

Mr. Niemz believes most German students would like to come to the United States.
Our foreign exchange student from Indonesia, Ofa Ronadihardjo, is living with his American Brother Bob Walter. After Ofa graduates from Jefferson he plans to enter college to study for a career in medicine.

"In sports, football is my favorite sport. My favorite foods are hamburgers, chicken and ice cream. Here I spend a year of my life to gain many experiences during this time. I have a lot of fun with our friend, Bob. At last I hope I can visit your country again next time. Bye, I'll see you."

Paloma Ramirez comes to us from Spain. Paloma is staying with Diane Dvorak. After graduation, Paloma plans to be a secretary.

"During my leisure time, I go to the movies, go to the games, go to parties, read and answer letters. I spend a wonderful time in United States. I always remember Jefferson, all my friends, and all the good times that I have here. When I will come back to home, I will tell to my friends how wonderful country is this. If you go sometime to my country, I hope you enjoy it as I enjoy yours. And I tell you, come to my country and I promise you, you will be happy."
Davchmidt, Jefferson's A.F.S. student, talks with Jo Lynne Brown, a candidate for next summer's A.F.S. program.

"My summer in Denmark was an entertaining and enlightening experience. It gave me a chance to see a part of the country that the tourist often misses; the people as they live from day to day. The Danes were happy, fun-loving, and sincere."

Bige Inceler is the foreign exchange student from Turkey. Bige is living with her American sister, Donna Baggarly. Bige's future plans will take her to college where she will study to become a chemist.

"I would like to thank everyone at Jefferson for their friendship and assistance that has been given to me and for making this a wonderful year in my life. Being Jefferson's Homecoming Queen came as a surprise to me. It made me so happy because I like everyone and I wanted them to like me. I hope that I can come back to America someday."
Walk across the Jefferson stage.
The clear floor reflects the memories of another year.
A year with many new ideas,
But all done in Jefferson tradition.
Our stage knows well the fine directors, and the many students who cross its apron.
It sees students come and students go,
But when they go, this stage remains
To carry on the highest standards Left by its alumni.

"Yet A Little While"

"Our Sweet Savior Dear"
The drama department once again had a very successful year with the production of two comedies. The fall play was the "Madwoman of Chaillot" by Jean Giradoux. This unusual fantasy provided an excellent opportunity for many of our stage-struck students to "show their stuff" as the play calls for a cast of fifty -- the largest ever in a Thespian production.

The play also presented a challenge to the students because it is much more than just a comedy. Giradoux, like many other writers, criticizes the standards of society and the play abounds with symbolism and satire. Much of the success of the play can be attributed to the expert direction of Mr. Robert Geuder and the outstanding sets of Mr. Roger Meeker. With the help of these men the cast more than met the challenge and some 1200 people saw and enjoyed two very entertaining performances.

Look! I got a part!!
The delightfully daft Madwoman of Chaillot, Suzi Sargeant.

The President, Jan Maly, and the Baron, Steve Shaffer, listen to the Prospector, Bill Phillips, tell the Broker, Bob Mowry, of his plot to destroy Chaillot.

Irma, Leaetta Derhammer, and the waiter, Tom Williams, wonder if Pierre, Dave Marshall, is dead.
The Countess, Mmme, Constance, Margaret Waters, and Mlle. Gabrielle, Judy Locke, listen as Mmme, Josephine, Vicki Koutny, tells them to kill their enemies.

"Sadness flies on the wings of the morning"

The talented Ragpicker, Ron Gibson, defends the "wicked people" in a mock trial.
Oberon, Bill Phillips, calls Puck, Ron Gibson, with, "My gentle Puck, come hither!"

Midsummer

Titania, Pat Carlson, is lulled to sleep by her court: Rosalie Rimrodt, Patt Dvorak, Joanne Just, and Linda de Neul.

Sue McCrory, Lana Smith, Linda Schroeder, and Pam Shaffer, members of Oberon's Court, surround Thistle, Cheri Schneider.
Night's Dream

Under the direction of Peter Quince, Joe Kun, the play within the play is rehearsed by the mechanics: Kenn Nye, Ron Cortez, Mike Conner, Kimm Stastny, and Mike Robertson.

Helena and Hermia, Pam Geiger and Terry Biederman, are spurned by their lovers: Demetrius and Lysander, Steve Shaffer and Tom Miskimen.

Philostrate, Jack Welch, proposes some entertainment to Theseus, Jan Maly, and Hippolyta, Sandy McDowell, as Terry Hollister and Tom Williams stand guard.
Once the play has been cast the work begins.

Scenery must be built,

Lighting must be set,

And costumes must be made before we can enjoy...

Few people realize how much work must be done before a play can be presented. Rehearsals for "Midsummer Night's Dream" began six weeks prior to the performances. Besides the members of the cast, who were given credit for their work, the members of the various crews contributed many hours of their time and energy with little recognition. Without the combined efforts of the cast and crews, the expert production of "Midsummer Night's Dream"--enjoyed by two full houses--would not have been possible.
...many hours of rehearsal are spent learning the dances.

Long before the cast becomes nervous, work must be done.

...the finished performance.

Those who went to the senior prom will always have "Something to Remember." There was the price of tickets, new dresses, tired feet, parties afterward, and the next morning. As we entered the dance under an archway we could hear the music of Dale Thomas.
"Somewhere Over the Rainbow" was the theme for the swim show this year. All the colors of the rainbow were used in the costuming of the swimmers. The show consisted of clowns, dancing, singing, skits, swimming, and a swimming duet by Terry Hamer and Sue Marsh, the prince and princess of the swim show.

The girls form the colors of the rainbow under the theme.

Class Day . . .
Can you imagine a football game, a wrestling meet, or any athletic event without the cheerleaders to urge the teams on toward victory! School spirit is largely dependent on the team efforts of the cheerleaders. Long hours of practice are necessary to produce the team work so evident at our pep meetings and our games. Coaches are aware of the importance of good school spirit.

Our fine athletic teams, dedicated coaching and the spirited efforts of our cheerleaders have produced a loyal and enthusiastic student body.

The Team, A season We'll Never Forget. . .Some Highlights of the 1962 Football Campaign
* The string of fourteen consecutive victories over a two year span.
* The J-Hawks' convincing victory over city-rival Washington before 15,000 fans in beautiful Kingston Stadium.
* Jefferson's Number One ranking in all three state polls all season long until the finale against Davenport Central.
* The heartbreaking defeat in that state and conference title game before 10,000 fans at Davenport. . .and the heroic comeback late in the game that almost succeeded.
* The big night against the Little Hawks of Iowa City when the J-Hawks broke a jinx, 46-6, and reached their peak.
* The agony of the scoreless struggle at East Moline until Prescott's miraculous catch opened the door to two last minute touchdowns.
* The state's number one backfield--Knutson, Bishop, McDowell, and Meskimen. . .the memorable plays they turned in all season long.
* Our two big ends--Herman and Prescott, and our little trio of defensive specialists--Sievertson, Schultz and Sparks. . .the cornerstone of Jeff's highly rated defense.
* Jefferson's claim as the number two football team in the state for the second-straight year.
Quarterback Meskimen talks over a coming play with Coach Ted Lawrence.

We Apologize

Our sports editor failed to turn in pictures and written material for the sports section. Therefore it was necessary to recheck negatives and have new pictures made and also rewrite the records for each sport. Many of our first pictures were not available. Any errors in names and spelling are due to the haste necessary to get the sport section to the printers.

Our thanks to the coaches and others who helped in compiling this material for the second time.
